Stability. As part of a larger insurance-centric holding company with four distinct businesses within the insurance industry, the diversity of revenue streams ensures our financial stability and security for our clients and colleagues. We are proud and passionate insurance geeks. There are plenty of creative colleagues in your mist who would love to strategize with you or help you get up to speed on an emerging trend. Lean in!

Vibrant Culture. We are honored and humbled that our colleagues rank us year after year as a best place to work through Fortune, Insurance Journal and others. Having a fun, passionate culture enables us to attract and retain folks like you, the best talent in the business. We are honored that 94% of our 2019 news hires were referrals from existing colleagues or recruited by our talent scouting team! And, at BRP, we all own the culture. It is the responsibility of each of us – to nurture it, refine it and evolve as our firm grows. It was started by the partners who were very deliberative in our approach to the environment where everyone can thrive. But it isn't just ours. It is yours too!

Robust Infrastructure. We believe in being on the vanguard and we're not just talking about insurance. As a part of BRP, you have access to enhanced administrative support, such as HR recruiting and development, marketing, technology and accounting, to arm you with the right tools to thrive and provide our clients with the best possible counsel. We make it easy!
